

PHILANTHROPY IN PRACTICE

Grant making and the sustainability of nonprofits

Agenda

11-12.30 - October 12th - 2023

Open and introductions

Philanthropy Ireland's CEO, Éilis Murray will open the Philanthropy in Practice session and introduce our three contributors.

Shana Cohen, Director of TASC

Earlier this year TASC and The Wheel produced the following report, looking at issues impacting the nonprofit sector and how this affects long term sustainability. Shana will provide an overview of this research and how issues such as resources, retention and recruitment are impacting the delivery of social impact.

Ashling Cashmore, Head of Impact and Advisory, CAF

CAF brings charities, business, and philanthropists together to simplify giving, allowing charities to focus more on the great work they do. CAF produces the Charity Landscape Report and examines how philanthropy contributes to nonprofit sustainability.

Orla O' Neil, Executive Director, St. Stephen's Green Trust

St. Stephen's Green Trust is an all-island independent grant maker which supports groups to effect positive social change in critical areas of social justice. They provide operational and core costs through their grant making. Orla will provide an overview of the benefits and challenges associated with this type of grant making.

Q and A session

Éilis will facilitate a Q and A session with the three contributors, providing an opportunity for participants to delve deeper into the issues and search for solutions.
